President's Message

Lou Gardner

2025 President, Roosters & Roosters Foundation

Dear Roosters Brothers and Sisters,

I hope this message finds you well. First, I want to extend my deepest gratitude for your dedication and support in making our mission a reality. Your hard work and compassion truly make a difference in the lives of those we serve.

As we move forward, we have two exciting fundraising events coming up, and we need your help to make them a success! The OCFWC on March 29 and OC Marathon on May 2-4 are not just about raising money—they're about bringing our community together, spreading awareness, and making a lasting impact.

Whether you can volunteer your time, contribute resources, or help spread the word, every effort counts. With your passion and commitment, I know we can reach new heights and provide even more support to those in need.

Please join us in making these events unforgettable! If you're available to help, kindly let Penny or Alison know. Let's come together once again and show the power of what we can achieve as a team.

Thank you for all that you do. I look forward to working with you to make these fundraisers a huge success!

2025 OC Food and Wine Celebration

Hello Roosters,

The planning is in full swing for this year's OCFWC. We expect it to be bigger and better than ever. Our new location at the Festival of the Arts venue in Laguna Beach is a destination location for many people in Southern California.

We are excited to announce that we will have one of the premier event bands in Orange County, Pinch Me, playing at the event.

The 'Wine Team' is working hard on new vendors and sponsors to make this the most successful event in many years. So, tell friends and family to save the date now:
Saturday, March 29th, 2PM to 6PM!

We still need a few more volunteers to work the event. Please check your email for the SignUp sheet from Penny Strenger.

See you there!

At our next luncheon. What's a better way to celebrate Valentine's Day than to enjoy some beautiful photography taken by our very own Rooster, Bleu Cotton? Enjoy stories and images from his 40 years as a photographer. You do not want to miss this lunch!

Roosters Charities in the News

John Hinson delivered a 2024 grant check for $11,000 to Hope Harbor. Pictured beside John is Jenna Arroyo, Sea Glass Facility Manager, along with two of the girls currently living there. Sea Glass is the home for the girls and Rip Tide is the boys home. The grant will be used primarily for food and other home supplies in both homes.

Hope Harbor began as an emergency crisis shelter for teen runaways. Through the years, Hope Harbor has evolved into a unique, preventive-care program providing temporary housing (12-18 months), mental health care, academic support, and all basic necessities to at-risk, homeless, or runaway teens in California. More than just temporary relief, Hope Harbor not only stabilizes these teens but brings restoration to the entire family unit before their teen ends up on the streets or becomes a ward of the court system.

Michael Krever presented Friendly Center with their 2024 grant check for $9,500 while volunteering recently.

In 2024 we distributed:

Family Promise $11,000.00

Fish For Life $8500.00
Friendly Center $9,500.00

Rob Ward, Leah Ward, Shannon Rodriguez, Alex Rodriguez, and Stephanie Bauer, will be pouring wine at the Tustin Sip & Stroll inside Johnny Jeans at 401 El Camino Real, Tustin, CA 92780.

The Tustin Sip & Stroll is a fun event with Wine, Beer, Food and Entertainment. For more information: https://www.flipcause.com/secure/cause_pdetails/MjIzMTU2

We do not need any more volunteers, but it would be nice if Roosters can support this event. This is a ticketed event, and you can purchase your tickets here: https://www.flipcause.com/secure/event_step2/MjIzMTU2/291823

This event is a major fundraiser for Tustin Community Foundation (TCF). Rob Ward has forged a partnership with TCF, and they promote our events in their newsletter and in their email list campaigns. It was TCF that helped Roosters become the Beneficiary of the 2024 Tustin Street Fair and Chili Cook-Off. Being the Beneficiary of that event earned Roosters $7,000 that we were able to distribute to our charities.

So, buy a ticket and come out and support those that support Roosters!

Roosters are generous!

Recently, I saw two Roosters and their spouses out to dinner. I could tell they were having a great time. Then, I saw something remarkable. The two Roosters pooled their money and called the waiter to their table. I presumed as they whispered to the waiter that they told him to give the money to the table across the way, which had a couple and their two young children and do it anonymously but ask them to pay it forward to others. It looked like they were proud of what they did. Is this what Roosters do? Can you guess who these two Roosters are? - Gary Draper

Roosters Board of Directors 2024

A letter from Rooster of the Year, Rob Ward

There is no such thing as Rooster of the Year without a flock of other Roosters standing in support with that member.

For me, there is no such thing as Rooster of the Year without:

- Dan Stone introducing me to the Roosters and sponsoring me for membership.
- Gary Draper encouraging me to get involved, encouraging me to join the Board, and introducing me to the Tustin Community Foundation that runs the Tustin Street Fair and Chili Cook-Off.
- Greg Bates and the 2024 Board. Anytime I volunteered to do something; Greg and the Board enthusiastically supported me and gave me the freedom and flexibility to execute... and anytime I was “voluntold” to do something; Greg and the Board enthusiastically supported me and gave me the freedom and flexibility to execute... 😊
- All the Roosters who took my call that started with, “Hey, can I get your input on something?”
- All the Roosters and their spouses that came out and volunteered with me at the Tustin Street Fair and Chili Cook-Off; Stephanie Bauer, BJ Borgen, Peter Haaker, Chad Hall, Lou Gardner, Leslie Gardner, Jon Giberson, Scotty Giberson, Jeramy Gordon, Kelsi Gordon, John Hinson, Maggie Hinson, Pat McAuley, Rick McAuley, Paul Robidoux, Dan Stone, Leah Ward, and Davi Wilson. Together we covered (24) 4-hour shifts and raised $7,000 for our charities.
- Penny and Alison who are an integral part of the Roosters organization and who have so much tribal knowledge. Any time I would volunteer for something I would turn to them and say, “How do I do this?” And they would reply, “Well this is how Craig Boardman did it, this is how Stan Smith did it, this is how Michael Krever did it, this is how... did it.” And I was then able to follow in the footsteps of Roosters who have set the example.
- Jon Giberson who took me under his wing and brought a smile to my face any time I saw him. I remember one time at a luncheon I noticed that he had a black name badge and when I asked how he got it, he said “I was Rooster of the Year.” And damn it, I knew right then and there I just had to get me one.
- The support of my wife Leah. For every hour I gave to the Roosters, Leah put in at least an hour herself. Whether that was behind the scenes helping design fliers and banners, or standing right beside me volunteering on the frontlines. And any time I told her I was going to do this or that for the Roosters, and if she was okay with the time I would have to redirect from family and work, she simply said, “Yes, I think you should do that and let me know what I can do to help.”

So to all of the Roosters, their spouses and friends that stood in support of me, the Rooster of the Year award belongs to each and every one of you. I simply accepted it on all of our behalf.

And last, I just want to say...

I write this in gratitude, the least that you deserve!
